

Important information required about your foreign tax residency status

This is a reminder that the Common Reporting Standard (CRS) is a new global standard for the collection and reporting of information on financial accounts held by foreign tax residents.

Australian Financial Institutions are required to collect information from their customers and to provide the tax residency information to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO), as part of the global initiative on tax transparency.

A Self-Certification Declaration is required to be obtained from customers who are foreign tax residents i.e. non-residents for the purposes of tax.

Instructions to completing the enclosed Self-Certification Declaration for Overseas Tax Residency:

If you are:

- i. An individual/joint account holder or a controlling person of a company/trust (for example, director, trustee, settlor, beneficial owner, senior managing official, partner, secretary, chairperson and/or public officer), complete section 1;
- ii. A company/trust, complete section 2;

Additional copies of the Self-Certification form are available from <https://asset.banksyd.com.au/images/Self-Certification-Form.pdf>

Once you have completed the relevant sections of the Self-Certification please return completed form within 7 days of receipt to any branch of Bank of Sydney or:
